

2026 OFCA Winter Symposium

Collaboration for a stronger future

Agenda

Tuesday, March 10, 2026

1:00 P.M. - 6:30 P.M.

Effective Collaboration within Local Government

Strategies for inter-agency cooperation

Property Tax Reform in Ohio

Understanding the implications for fire departments

Community Paramedicine Update

Expanding access to healthcare through innovative programs

Legislative Update

Key legislation impacting fire services

Statehouse Legislative Reception

Networking with legislators and colleagues

Wednesday, March 11, 2026

7:30 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.

OFCA/OAPFF Hot Topics Panel

Discussion on current challenges and opportunities

HR Issues Update

Best practices in human resources management

We look forward to seeing you at the 2026 OFCA Winter Symposium! This year's symposium focuses on collaboration and its vital role in strengthening fire and EMS services across Ohio. Join us for informative sessions, valuable networking opportunities, and a chance to shape the future of our profession.

Summary

The 2026 OFCA Winter Symposium promises a dynamic and informative agenda. Key topics include effective collaboration within local government, property tax reform, community paramedicine, legislative updates, and critical HR issues. Don't miss this opportunity to connect with colleagues, engage with legislative leaders, and gain valuable insights for the future of fire services in Ohio. This conference is designed to help you and your team stay informed and connected.